NEW YORK, Sept 28

A Herald's Washington special says A plan has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury which, it is understood, meets the approval of bankers and financial men who have conferred on the subject, by means of which it will be practicable to accomplish the resumption of specie payment in five years, retire all the national bank currency notes within ninety days, substitute greenbacks as the sole currency of the country, give commerce and the west ninety millions increased bank circulation in greenbacks and reduce the com interest debt $300,000,000, and all in a manner satisfactory to the banking and financial interests of all sections.

A Boston paper recently published a telegram to the effect that Secretary McCulloch was short of currency funds and would in consequence, throw $20,000,000 in gold on the market The Secretary says there is no truth in the report and he has forbidden any one about his office from furnishing information to newspaper correspondents in future, except heads of bureaus, designated by himself.

It now appears that the Farmers & Citizens National Bank of Brooklyn was seized under a misapprehension of facts

An Inspector, who has just returned to make his report to Commissioner Rollins, after a six months tour through the west and south west, represents the frauds upon the revenue in the tobacco business as scarcely inferior in extent and enormity to the whiskey frauds. His attention was directed to the tobacco trade exclusively, and he states that in the brief time he has been away he has discovered frauds to the extent of half a million of dollars. These were mostly brought to light in St Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Cairo and Memphis. The stamps used by the Tobacco Inspectors of the several revenue districts are frequently counterfeited and used, and the tobacco thus marked is sent out of the district and sold elsewhere, thus escaping the attention of regular Inspectors.

Judge Underwood and L. H. Chandler, United States District Attorney for Virginia, are here in consultation with the Attorney General in relation to the trial of Jeff. Davis in November Mr Chandler, who is the prosecuting officer in the case, will, it is understood, be governed in his action entirely by the advice of Mr Stanberry. Judge Underwood and Mr. Chandler are both of the opinion that sufficient testimony can be produced to convict Davis, provided the case is allowed to take a regular course without any interference from the authorities here. The friends of Davis, including his bondmen, assert that he will put an appearance at court when wanted and that he is not only willing but anxious to go through a regular trial of the indictment against him.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 27

The police are very active arresting persons believed to be implicated in the recent riots. The prisoners were all discharged, however, as soon as examined, nothing being proven to warrant their detention, nor has anything as to the plans of the Fenian organization been elicited

Fenian rumors are still current It is announced this morning that another Fenian cruiser was recently seen hovering about the Irish coast. The Government is taking every possible precaution to prevent another outbreak.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

The Tobacco Trade Committee who went to Washington report that the Secretary of the Treasury assured them that bonded warehouses would not be interfered with The committee was instructed to invite merchants of other cities to co operate in showing the Secretary the impossibility of honestly complying with the regulations concerning the trade

General Sheridan arrived here at 5 o'clock, and is the guest of Colonel Frank E. Howe. No public demonstration will be made till Monday night, when the General visits the Union League, escorted by soldiers. The building will be illuminated, speeches delivered, and a splendid banquet partaken of. Governor Curtin, Secretary Stanton and Generals Hancock and Sickles are expected to be present. There will probably be a public reception at the Union League house on Tuesday for the benefit of the ladies.

It is probable that the trial of Jeff Davis will be considered in a Cabinet meeting before the Attorney General gives District Attorney Chandler, of Virginia, any official advice

Intelligence from Hayti to the 8th states that the country is in an extraordinary state of agitation, gold fabulously high and provisions scarce; flour twenty dollars in gold per barrel Thirty-four Haytien dollars were only worth one Spanish dollar in silver The Cayecos were still in arms against the Soloaro and had pillaged Delnaire, a town in the South

The Herald's New Orleans dispatch says Dr. Wm. Oleanly, Fenian Head Centre of Louisiana, and Capt. J. W. Dunphy, a noted Fenian Organizer, have died of yellow fever. The interments on Friday numbered sixty-seven.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.

General Mower issued order to-day modifying the military orders relative to the juries of Texas, so as to render it practicable to obtain juries in that State. The order requires jurors to be drawn from those registered and none others, and no other oath is required than that of registration

The election passed off nicely both days.—There are no returns in yet from the Fourth Municipal District. The total vote polled is about 1,200 in this district. The republican despairs of the vote being large enough to render the election valid, and says he white vote is about one tenth of the who vote cast. The entire vote of the city is estimated at 12,000, while the number registered was ver 38,000. Several instances are noted of negros voting or offering their votes under a different name from that on their registration papers.

CINCINNATI, Sept 29.

Two men entered the car of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad at Seymour, Indiana, last night and making their way to the Adams' Express car secured the messenger and robbed the safe of about $10,000. The robbers escaped.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.

A part of the President's individual acts looking toward the defeat of reconstruction, has come to light It appears that the late appeal of parties in Alabama to the Courts to be upheld in their right to register, which they claim was conferred by the President's Amnesty Proclamation, was taken by the written advice of Mr. Johnson. For some time the President hesitated upon the question of directly ordering the re-opening of registration, and though strongly urged by Southern men here to do so, flatly told one of their number, Hon. S. F. Rice, of Montgomery, Alabama, that the best way was to submit the matter as quickly as possible to the Courts and hurry it up to the Supreme Court if could be. Rice asked the President to put this advice in writing, which he did, and copies of the letter were sent into all of the Southern States except Louisiana, and the parties to whom they were addressed were urged to make up test cases at once.

The Secretary of the Corressional Executive Committee has late information from all points in the South The first effect of the President's late course was to dampen the ardor of the Republicans, to seriously retard the work of reconstruction and to greatly embolden the rebels, but the reception which McJohnson's acts have met at the North has caused a marked reaction and matters look hopeful agin Alabama is considered good for fifty thousand Union majority by the best posted men in various parts of the State. In North Carolina early all differences between Republicans have been settled, and the disaffection of Goodloe at his White House clique, it is thought, will reduce no material trouble It is believed the Goodloe, since the delivery of Mr. Chase's address at Raleigh, has been actively engaged in collusion with the President to defeat reconstruction in North Carolina. Florida is considered as certain for a Union ticket, while states of Mississippi and Arkansas now look favorabl and are becoming more so daily. The Unionists in Virginia has been from the first in an unmixed condition, but matters are now improving and while the contest is close, the State is considered safe. Throughout the whole Shenandoah Valley the people seem convinced that Johnson means trouble and the idea of assisting him is freely discussed.

General Ord, as appears on orders received at headquarters, has directed the discharge from the Quartermaster's Department in the Fourth Military District all civilian whose services can possibly be dispensed with or whose places can be filled by enlisted men without detriment to the service. Hereafter civilians will be employed except in cases of absolute necessity—This order is issued in accordance with General Grant's instructions to cut down the expenses as much as possible.

The report in various papers that the late General Griffin's order removing Judges in Texas was revoked is not correct It appears that the first order he issued in the removals and appointments, but discovering afterwards that he could not appoint a Chief Justice he revoked that order and on the same day issue another making the same removals and appointments but not designating a Chief Justice.

Full returns from the late election in Maryland have been received, from which it appears that the vote for a new Constitution was 47,152 against 29,076 Gov Swann therefore declares it adopted and gives notice that it will go into effect as the proper Constitution and form of government for the State on Saturday of this week.

A New Orleans letter says General Mower's first order on assuming command of the Fifth Military District continues force all orders of Sheridan and Griffin and adds that if the loyal men are satisfied he will carry out the policy inaugurated by his predecessors.

IMPROVED

PATENT WATER WEIGHS.

The subscriber announces that he has obtained Letters Patent for improvement in the mode of operating and sinking wells, and in the apparatus employed therein. A rare chance is now offered to secure County and state Rights, as they will be disposed of cheap, as the subscriber has other Patents about to be issued claiming his attention. More money can be made in this business than any other. It requires but very little capital to start with. Those sinking wells in this place give him a call. Stoned up wells that have become dry can have my wells put down inside of them at reasonable rates, and obtain plenty of water

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE MORNING HERALD, TITUSVILLE, Sept. 28, 1867—10 P. M.

Under the favorable advices of yesterday from New York the Petroleum market opened with a much better feeling than it has exhibited on any previous day during the past week. There was considerable disposition to operate during the morning, and the inquiry was decidedly good. The prices offered were substantially the same as those of yesterday. Toward noon a number of speculators who have held off during the past two weeks came in and several transactions of a speculative order occurred. Later in the day the New York and Philadelphia reports received, showed an advance in prices over yesterday, and this market became strong and active and somewhat excited in consequence. In the afternoon the market was well attended by New York, local and speculative buyers, and an advance of from 10 to 15 cents was established. There was considerable demand for October delivery, and this class of buyers were freely offering $4 25 delivered at any point above Petroleum Centre. The sales at the wells were as follows: 1,000 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, for the New York market, at $3 80; 200 barrels on Bull Run, for the New York market, forty-five gallons to the barrel, at $3 75; 1,000 barrels on Benninghoff Run, by the Benninghoff Run Oil Company, for the New York market, at $3 80; 100 barrels on the McClintock Farm, for the local market, at $4 00; 500 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, for the New York market, at $3 75; 1,000 barrels on Benninghoff Hill, from the Overy well, for the New York market, at $3 80, 1,000 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, for the New York market, terms not stated; 200 barrels on Pioneer Run, at $3 60, 1,000 barrels on Benninghoff Hill, from the Newton well, for the New York market, at $3 80; 100 barrels on the McClintock Farm, for the local market, at $4 00; 500 barrels on the McElheny Farm, from the McLaughlin well, for the New York market, at $3 75, 1,000 barrels on the McClintock Farm, by the Central Petroleum Company, for the local market, at $3 90; 1,000 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, for the New York market, at $3 80, 400 barrels on the McClintock Farm, for the local market, at $4 00.
